DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-18 and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by the United Kingdom patent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the United Kingdom patent in view of Kennedy et al. The United Kingdom patent discloses the claimed invention except for the man door. Kennedy et al. ('820) teaches that it is known to provide a leaf with a man door for closing a man doorway as set forth at column 7, line 64 to column 8, line 6. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the leaf of the United Kingdom patent with a man door, as taught by Kennedy et al. ('820) in order to allow a passageway by personnel without having to open any of the leafs.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
